Profile

Video editor and shooter based in London. For a year I ran Architecture Social's podcast end to end, shooting each episode on three cameras and editing it in Premiere Pro into full episodes, trailers, reels and promo clips. A background in recruitment and marketing means I edit with the audience and the business goal in mind.

Experience

Senior Marketing Manager Aug 2026 to Oct 2026
Marketing & Operations Partner Oct 2025 to Aug 2026
Architecture Social · Moorgate, London

- Ran the company podcast end to end: guest booking, pre-production calls, filming, editing and publishing.
- Shot every episode on three cameras (Canon R6 Mark III) with Hollyland wireless audio and LED lighting.
- Edited around 20 published episodes from 30 recorded in Premiere Pro, syncing and cutting three camera angles.
- Repurposed each episode into reels, trailers and promo clips tailored to LinkedIn, Instagram and YouTube.
- Cut a trailer for client Seifermann that they now use as the hero video on their own website.
- Podcast relationships generated new recruitment vacancies; promoted to Senior Marketing Manager for creative contribution and commercial impact.
- Designed marketing assets in Photoshop, Figma and Canva; scheduled campaigns in Buffer and Zernio.

Recruitment Consultant Feb 2023 to Oct 2025
Architecture Social (2025) · HAUS Careers (2024 to 2025) · MAM Gruppe (2023)

- Sourced and placed architecture, design and IT professionals across the London and German markets.
- Managed client accounts, visited studios in person and secured new vacancies independently.
- Closed a placement billing £16,500 within five months of starting in recruitment.
- Moved into marketing at Architecture Social on the strength of my independent music and content work.
